

For Immediate Release

Contact: Jen Donovan
Public Information Officer
Marketing Department
(302)857-1609

September 14, 2007

Terry Campus to host Constitution Day Celebration

DOVER- Delaware Technical & Community College, Terry Campus will host a Constitution Day Celebration on Tuesday, Sept. 18 at noon. The event will be open to the public and take place in the conference center in the Education and Technology Building on campus.

Madeline Dunn, director of education of the Delaware Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs will present "Delaware and the Federal Constitution" to illustrate the role Delaware played in the history of the Constitution. To add to the festivities, the campus choral group, the Terry Singers, will perform a patriotic tribute and children from the campus Child Development Center will lead the audience in the Pledge of Allegiance.

For more information please contact the Terry Campus Dean of Student Services Office at 302-857-1036.

#####