Hawks lacrosse coach looks forward to second half of season

DOVER- Tack on another win for Terry Campus Hawks lacrosse team, now ranked thirteenth in the NJCAA Region XIX.

The Delaware Tech men's squad won their first home game against Alfred State, New York on Friday, March 21 ending the game with a score of 19-11.

According to the team's coach, John Coveleski, the second half of the Hawks season should see more wins and skill growth.

"This team is on the move," Coveleski said. "The second half of the season will show significant development and I expect the team to get better and better."

The Hawks's next home game will be on Wednesday, March 26 against the Brookdale Community College Jersey Blues. The opening whistle will sound at 1 p.m. on the Wesley College lacrosse field.

This spring 46 students at the Terry Campus are participating in Hawks athletic teams and drumline. According to Vice President and Campus Director Daniel L. Simpson the activities succeed in offering a well-rounded community college experience to every student.
